York from 3 to 7 March 2025, which examined the status and implementation of the Treaty and considered the progress towards achieving its objectives, purpose and the goal of a world free from nuclear weapons, as well as the implementation of the Vienna Action Plan;

7. Also welcomes the decisions taken at the third Meeting of States Parties,<sup>3</sup> including the adoption of the declaration entitled “Strengthening our commitment to a world free of nuclear weapons amid the rising global instability”, as well as the ongoing informal intersessional work to implement the Treaty, the Vienna Action Plan and the Treaty’s underlying rationale regarding the humanitarian consequences and risks of nuclear weapons and the resulting security concerns;

8. Further welcomes the participation of States signatories, as well as of other States not Party to the Treaty, the relevant entities of the United Nations system, other relevant international organizations or institutions, regional organizations, the International Committee of the Red Cross, the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies and relevant non-governmental organizations at the third Meeting of States Parties as observers;

9. Welcomes the ongoing work of the Treaty’s Scientific Advisory Group and the update to its report on the status and developments regarding nuclear weapons, nuclear weapon risks, the humanitarian consequences of nuclear weapons, nuclear disarmament and related issues;<sup>4</sup>

10. Confirms that the first Review Conference of Parties to the Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons will be held at United Nations Headquarters in New York from 30 November to 4 December 2026;

11. Expresses its gratitude to the Secretary-General for his support provided to date, and requests him to render the necessary assistance and to provide such services, as may be required, for the first Review Conference and its informal intersessional process;

12. Calls upon all States that have not yet done so to sign, ratify, accept, approve or accede to the Treaty at the earliest possible date;

13. Calls upon those States in a position to do so to promote adherence to the Treaty and its norms and underlying rationale through bilateral, subregional, regional and multilateral contacts, outreach and other means;

14. Requests the Secretary-General, as depositary of the Treaty, to report to the General Assembly at its eighty-first session on the status of signature and ratification, acceptance, approval or accession of the Treaty;

15. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its eighty-first session, under the item entitled “General and complete disarmament”, the sub-item entitled “Treaty on the Prohibition of Nuclear Weapons”.
