Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 2 December 2024

[on the report of the First Committee (A/79/409, para. 21)]

79/67. United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and the Pacific

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolutions 42/39 D of 30 November 1987 and 44/117 F of 15 December 1989, by which it established the United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and renamed it the United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and the Pacific, with headquarters in Kathmandu,

Recalling also the mandate of the Regional Centre to provide, on request, substantive support for the initiatives and other activities mutually agreed upon by the Member States of the Asia-Pacific region for the implementation of measures for peace and disarmament, through appropriate utilization of available resources,

Taking note of the report of the Secretary-General,<sup>1</sup> and expressing its appreciation to the Regional Centre for its important work in promoting dialogue and confidence-building measures through the organization of meetings, conferences and workshops in the region, including the twenty-second United Nations-Republic of Korea Joint Conference on Disarmament and Non-Proliferation Issues, the regional preparatory meeting for the fourth conference to review progress made in the implementation of the Programme of Action to Prevent, Combat and Eradicate the Illicit Trade in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects<sup>2</sup> and its International Instrument to Enable States to Identify and Trace, in a Timely and Reliable Manner,

Illicit Small Arms and Light Weapons (the International Tracing Instrument)<sup>3</sup> and national and subregional workshops on awareness-raising and promoting the full and universal implementation of the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production and Stockpiling of Bacteriological (Biological) and Toxin Weapons and on Their Destruction,<sup>4</sup> the Convention on the Prohibition of the Development, Production, Stockpiling and Use of Chemical Weapons and on Their Destruction,<sup>5</sup> the International Convention for the Suppression of Acts of Nuclear Terrorism,<sup>6</sup> the Convention on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Certain Conventional Weapons Which May Be Deemed to Be Excessively Injurious or to Have Indiscriminate Effects<sup>7</sup> and Security Council resolution 1540 (2004) of 28 April 2004,

Expressing its appreciation to the Regional Centre for its capacity-building training for States of Asia and the Pacific on fostering gender-responsive arms control, on physical security and stockpile management and on the impact of advancing science and technology on disarmament, arms control and non-proliferation, activities under the Saving Lives Entity initiative carried out jointly with the United Nations Development Programme, activities to promote transparency and confidence-building measures among States in Asia and the Pacific, initiatives to promote the voices of young people in the region on issues related to disarmament, arms control and non-proliferation and activities to strengthen partnership with civil society organizations, universities and schools in the region on disarmament issues, the linkages between gender and peace and disarmament, and the nexus between disarmament and the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development,<sup>8</sup>

Expressing appreciation for the timely execution by Nepal of its host country commitments for the physical operation of the Regional Centre,

Welcoming the work by the Regional Centre in support of the achievement of Sustainable Development Goals 5 and 16, in particular target 5.2 to eliminate all forms of violence against all women and girls, target 5.5 to ensure women's full and effective participation and equal opportunities for leadership and target 16.4 to significantly reduce illicit financial and arms flows,

Welcoming also the efforts by the Regional Centre to promote the role and representation of women in disarmament, non-proliferation and arms control activities,

Welcoming further the youth-focused outreach activities undertaken by the Regional Centre,

1. Expresses its satisfaction at the activities carried out over the past year by the United Nations Regional Centre for Peace and Disarmament in Asia and the Pacific, and requests the Regional Centre to continue to take into account the proposals for activities submitted by the countries of the region for the implementation of the mandate of the Centre in the areas of peace, disarmament and development;

2. Invites all States of the region to continue to support the activities of the Regional Centre, including by continuing to take part in them, where possible, and by proposing items for inclusion in the programme of activities of the Centre, in order to contribute to the implementation of measures for peace and disarmament;

3. Expresses its gratitude to the Government of Nepal for its cooperation and financial support, which has enabled the Regional Centre to operate from Kathmandu;
